How to change the language on the website

Method 1: Automatic Translation in Google Chrome

1. Open the website you want to translate (for example, joker.no or joker.no/norefjell).
2. When the page loads, Chrome usually offers to translate it automatically.
 1. You'll see a small pop-up at the top of the browser saying:
"This page is in Norwegian. Would you like to translate it?"
3. Click "Translate" and choose English or other languages.
4. The page will instantly appear in the chosen language.

Method 2: Right-click to Translate

If Chrome doesn't show the translation pop-up:

1. Right-click anywhere on the webpage.
2. Choose "Translate to English or other languages" from the menu.

Method 3: Set Automatic Translation Preferences

If you want Chrome to always offer to translate Norwegian pages:

1. Click the three dots (:) in the top-right corner of Chrome.
2. Go to Settings → Languages.
3. Under "Preferred languages," make sure the option is enabled:
 "Offer to translate pages that aren't in a language you read."
